

2016 Fisherfolk Food Bazaar

October 19-20, 2016

City Hall Grounds, Tacloban City

Date & Venue

October 19-20, 2016 / City Hall Grounds, Tacloban City

Facilitators & Trainors

Christian Salamida

Participants

There were five association present in the fisherfolk food bazaar. These associations are the Rural Improvement Club (RIC), St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association, Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association (OKFA), St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association and Tacloban Fisherfolk Urban Association (TFUA). Based on the attendance, there were 65 people who are members of different associations who attended the said food bazaar. The members of RIC who are present are Saleha Badidles, Helen Beato, Zenaida Malate, Corazon Go, Teresita Guzman, Normal Avila, Mae Soy Corre, Leila Esperas, Roda Guzman, Sarah Dador, Marife Alforte, Criselda Padilla, and Eufrasia Raya. The members of St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association that were present were Cristina Miranda, Ilene Bonquet, Vevilyn Trazona, Maritoni Lucañas, Emelina Ojales, Charita Bodaño, Lanilyn Lazada, Chona Navigante, Editha Ibañez, and Rebecca Bodaño. Vilma Padul, Nelly Bodaño, Caroline Jane Bodaño, Edita Malate, Marilyn Chang, Renalyn Cajeda, Marilyn Cajeda, and Christine Opiniano were the members of St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association that were present. The Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association members that were present were Juanito Padul, Leopoldo Labrador, Johnvil Padul, Edilberto Castillo, William Ecleo, Emilio Aryap and Merlinda Miranda. The members of TFUA who were present were Emilio Oñate, Marlon Castillo, Marissa Fabre, Myra Castillo, Gregorio Salinga, Losanita Salinga, Mabel Castillo, Jonalyn Limpiado, Myrna Vallar, Emily Pallado, Cyril Pallado, Liza Oñate, Marcos Oñate, Reynaldo Valles, Danilo Gersola, Romeo Bandaje, Gina Astor, Losanto Castillo Jr., Mario Balgos, Geraldine Salinga, Luz Estrada, Jacinto Estrada and Amyleta Fabre.

Aims & Objectives of the Training

The main objective of the Fisherfolk food bazaar is to showcase, promote, and sell the local products of different fisherfolk associations of Tacloban City.

Agenda & Activities

Day 1

- Prayer and National Anthem
- Opening Remarks
- Cutting Ribbon
- Intermission
- Promotion of products of different fisherfolk associations
- Distribution of souvenirs from NFR and Oxfam to participating associations
- Closing Remarks

Day 2

- Prayer and National Anthem
- Intermission
- Promotion of products of different fisherfolk associations
- Raffle draw
- Thanksgiving message of fisherfolks association of Tacloban City

Preliminaries

The food bazaar started at 9:00 am and the program started at 11:15 in the morning. The opening remarks was given by Susan Borromeo of City Agricultures Office. She was also the one who cut the ribbon during the ribbon cutting ceremony.

The tarpaulin for the Food Bazaar which serves as the stage for the program

A photo taken during the Ribbon cutting ceremony

2016 Fisherfolk Food Bazaar

Rural improvement club products

Fish Fillet Afritada and Sarcido of Rural improvement club sold at a very cheap price

Rural improvement club "ginataang punaw" sold at a very cheap price

A photo of the delicious embutido made by Rural improvement club

A photo of the spicy "chilli dilis" made by Rural Improvement Club

A photo of the sweet "biko" which is also a product by RIC

A photo of the delicious "fish lumpia" which is also a product of RIC

Rural improvement club special puto

A photo of the yummy "Fish Empanada" made by RIC

St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association product

A photo of the very special seaweed pickles sold a 40 pesos

Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association products

Fresh "Lapu-lapu" fish from Old Kawayan, Tacloban City sold at P250/kilo

A photo of the fresh seaweed "lato" sold at P10

A photo of the Dried Squid sold at P350/ 1/2kilo

St. Vincent Women's Food Processing Association products

A photo of the delicious marinated boneless Bangus processed by St. Vincent Women's Food Processing Association

A photo of "Relyinong Bangus" sold at P140 each

Tacloban Fisherfolk Urban Association products

A photo of an alive fresh "Lapu-lapu" sold in the Food Bazaar

A photo of the smaller crabs sold by TFUA

A photo of bigger crabs sold by TFUA in the Food Bazaar

A photo of Boneless Bangus sold at 80 pesos each

Photos of Distribution of Souvenirs from NFR and Oxfam to participating associations

Giving of bags to Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association

Bags were also given to St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association

Distribution of bags, t-shirts and mugs to Rural improvement club of Tacloban City

Giving of mugs and t-shirts to Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association

Mugs and t-shirts were also given to St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association

The Tacloban Urban Fisherfolk Association also recieved bags, mugs and t-shirts from NFR and Oxfam

A representative of St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association received the souvenir items from NFR and Oxfam

Photos during the Closing Messages of NFR personnel

A photo of NFR personnels including the Facilitator Christian Saramida

Sir Erlo thanking the different fisherfolk association for actively participating in the NFR project

Ma'am Hannah also thank the participants for supporting NFR in their projects and being understanding despite late notice of upcoming trainings and seminars

Ma'am Blanca also thank the people in Tacloban for allowing the NFR to help them recover after Yolanda

As a former NFR staff, Christian Salamida also shared his experience and thanked the participants

Day 1 ended at 4:30 in the afternoon

Day 2 started at exactly 10:00 in the morning

Promotion of products of different fisherfolk associations

Tacloban Fisherfolk Urban Association showing the crabs, Lapu-lapu and boneless bangus that they are selling

Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association showing their fresh Lapu-lapu

St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association promoting their special seaweed pickles

Rural improvement club promoting their special products

St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association promoting their special relyinong bangus and marinated bangus

Thanksgiving message of fisherfolks association of Tacloban City

A member of RIC thanking NFR for all the help they offered

A member also of RIC thanking NFR for all the trainings and seminar because they have learned a lot and they can impart there knowledge to their co-members

A member of St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association is very much thankful to the NFR for all the trainings and seminars

A member also of St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association saying thank you to NFR

A member of Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association thanking Ma'am Hannah, Sir Erlo and Ma'am Blanca for all the things they have done to help Tacloban Fisherfolks

Juanito Padul, the president of old kawayan fisherfolk association also shared his gratitude to the NFR

A member of St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association also shared her experience about how thankful she is to NFR

Losanto Castillo Jr, the president of TFUA, shared his experience since the NFR came after Yolanda and showed how thankful he is to the NFR because of helping them to recover

A member of Tacloban Fisherfolk Urban Association also shared his experience and said that no words can describe how thankful they are to the NFR for all the help like the trainings, seminars and writeshop

Photos during the Raffle Draw

Ma'am Blanca was the one to draw the first lucky winner of the raffle

A member of the Rural improvement club won a special prize in the raffle

A member of Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association won an extension wire during the raffle draw

A member of TFUA also won extension wire and very much thankful about it

APPENDIX

APPENDIX A

The Trainors and Facilitators

TRAINOR/ FACILITATOR	SESSIONS DISCUSSED	AGENCY/ ORGANIZATION & Designation
 Christian Salamida	MC/ Host

APPENDIX B

Photos of the Participating Representatives of Fisherfolk Associations

The participants from Old Kawayan Fisherfolk Association together with Hannah Hipe and Christian Salamida of NFR

The participants from St. Vincent Women's Fisherfolk Association together with Hannah Hipe and Christian Salamida of NFR

The participants from Rural Improvement Club together with Hannah Hipe and Christian Salamida of NFR

The participants from Tacloban Fisherfolk Urban Association together with Hannah Hipe and Christian Salamida of NFR

The participants from St. Vincent Women's Fish Processing Association

Day 2 ended at 2:00 in the afternoon